Mr. [REDACTED] arranged for the shipment of his household effects to [REDACTED] Actual shipment of the effects took place on 12 June. Although the shipment was made in good faith and in anticipation of Mr. [REDACTED] arrival at [REDACTED]

3. By virtue of the noted resignation, Mr. [REDACTED] has become liable for the cost of shipment of the effects both to and from [REDACTED] and while he is willing to assume this responsibility, unfortunately his financial position does not permit full reimbursement to the Government for costs incurred.
Under the circumstances Mr. [REDACTED] has indicated that he is able and willing to make reimbursement for the outward shipment of effects, the cost of which (including packing, crating and freight charges) is $558. With respect to the cost of return shipment, Mr. [REDACTED] unable to bear the financial burden which would be approximately $450, has consented to permit the sale of his effects in [REDACTED] by the consignee storage company.
